I am looking for the obituary and death date for Wilma Fitzpatrick who died in Ponca City.

Does the library have a card file for obituaries? If so, would you please send the phone number of your Historian or Genealogy Librarian.

Or if an obituary copy is available through your library, would you please mail it to me and the cost of providing this service.

I will be happy to remit the cost and will greatly appreciate your help.

Sincerely,

Barbara Fulton

P.S. Your address on your website is now working, perhaps the address has changed?

Not all libraries are fortunate enough to have the fine card file that Bartlesville Library has. I was able to find this obit, but it would be helpful to include the death date when you request obits from any library. I don't know why the website did not work unless they were doing maintence when you tried. Glad I could help you, Loyd

It is always interesting to see what photos other relatives have of nearly the same thing isn't it. I find this photo so interesting because the girls in back both have matching dresses on and I would love to know who made them! Joan Sterling Smith is the little girls in back left. Othel is the older boy in the middle.The boy far left sitting down is Bob Sterling (his name is Ulon Brock but the family knew him as Bob) and the child between Bob and Othel is Clif Sterling. These 4 are Ida's children. I do not know the two children on the right but would love to know who they are. I have many pictures of Ida's family if you can give me an idea of what you are looking for. Family groups of long ago, military pictures, etc. My book is completed and it sure feels good to have that off my plate. There is lots more I would like to do as far as looking up relatives, etc. but there were so many waiting for the book and so many quite elderly that I felt I had to bring it to completion for now. It ended up being 300 double sided pages. A cousin of mine is a geneology buff so she did all that and that was so nice. I loved gathering pictures, preserving them and seeing that so many family members got copies of them. I have come to see that family pictures are just that--they belong to the whole family even though one person might be the caretaker of them. More later--I have been burning it at both ends and am beat. Our daughter is expecting a baby any minute so I had better get some rest. They have a 7 year old daughter, a 5 year old boy and they one will be a boy. More later. Good to hear from you.

Postoffice Robbery Charged Against Boy

Red Lodge, May 20.—(Special)—Thirteen-year-old Clifton Sterling of Belfry was brought in by Undersheriff John Albert, the lad being accused of robbery of the Belfry postoffice. The little chap was clad in waist-length overalls, heavy red plaid shirt, leather cuffs and a tattered slouch hat and looked ready for the movies, but there was a tear in his eye as he told his story to the officers.

The theft was committed Saturday night. The boy took with him, officers say, a revolver and $13 in cash. With the money he bought a secondhand saddle. The boy will probably be permitted to return to his parents until court shall convene, according to Sheriff George Headington.

GOD IS CAUSE SCIENCE TEXT

Divine Principle Is Lesson-Sermon Sunday.

"God, the Only Cause and Creator," was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all churches of Christ Scientist Sunday. The golden text was from Psalms 33:6. "By the word of the Lord were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth."

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honor and majesty. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain: who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: who maketh the clouds his chariot: who walketh upon the wings of the wind: . . . . Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed forever." Psalms 104: 1-3, 5.

The lesson-sermon included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "To grasp the reality and order of being in its science, you must begin by reckoning God as the divine principle of all that really is. Spirit, life, truth, love, combine as one—and are the Scriptural names for God. All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine principle, love" (P. 275).

LOCAL PILOT VISITS EAGLEROCK AIRPLANE FACTORY IN COLORADO

The Alexander Aircraft company, manufacturing Eaglerock planes, announces some changes in the motors and the color work on its products, according to R. L. Westover of the Billings Air Transport, who returned Friday from a three-day visit to the company's plant at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Mr. Westover went to Colorado with Capt. Billie Williams, sales promotion manager of the company. While there he inspected the plant in which more than 600 are employed. The factory is turning out about three ships a day, Mr. Westover said, and hope to raise the production very soon.

Experiments are being made with new motors, all of the radial type, five or seven cylinders. The Curtiss Challenger, the Kinner and Comet motors are being used in this work.

The Eaglerock people announce a new finance purchasing plan to be handled by the Airplane Acceptance corporation of Colorado Springs. The local flyer said that it offers a cheaper plan of finance than can be obtained for automobiles.

Nearly any color combination is now available, Mr. Westover declared. Solids or combinations can be had, arranged in attractive layouts.

Reference was made to land deeded earlier to Rudolph, 45 acres, June 7, 1794. The remaining part of his personal estate is given to his children listed as Henry, Abraham, George, Mary, Catherine, Sara, Magdalina, Christina, Juliana, Susannah, Barbara, and Lea. Jacob must give 15 pounds from Henry's estate 1 year after Henry's death to Magdalina, to Christina in 2 years, to Juliana in 3 years, ~~to Juliana in 3 years,~~ to Susannah in 4 years, to Barbara in 5 years and to Lea in six years. These 6 daughters were probably under the age of 21 at the time of Henry's death. The balance of Henry's personal estate was given equally to the other 12 children (excluding Rudolph, Michael, and Jacob). George and son Henry were living in Washington Co. at this time. They moved there in or about 1788. There was no explanation why Abraham was not left land since he still lived near his father.

Henry Brock Born 1747 Forrestville, Augusta Co., Virginia
Died after 1822 near Louisville, Kentucky.
Married: Christina in 1782 Shenandoah Co., Virginia
Children: probably 12 from references found
Samuel born about 1787 Shenandoah Co., Virginia
Philip born about 1790
? born about 1793 Washington Co., Virginia
Henry born 1797
? born 1799
Anna born about 1800
? born about 1802 probably in Jefferson Co., Kentucky
Andrew born about 1804
Elizabeth born about 1805

Henry is listed in 1785 Shenandoah Co. Census as head of a family of 4. He probably had 100 acres of land, the entry date is Nov. 15, 1778. The property was in Rockingham Co., now Pendleton Co., West Virginia lying on the mountain between the south branch and north fork of the Potomac River. His military record states that he stayed with friends in Shenandoah Co. in 1776 recovering from an illness, after which he returned to complete his military service and then was discharged in Shenandoah Co. late 1777 or early 1778. The last record of him here was his marriage to Christina about 1782.

The record of Henry in Washington Co, Virginia lists a survey on Sept. 15, 1788 for 50 acres on Walker mountain (bought from brother George), watered by the waters of Bever Creek, a branch of the North Fork of the Holston River, Washington Co, Virginia. Henry received the grant on Nov. 4, 1800. The last record of him here is the sale of property in 1801.

The first appearance of Henry Brock in Kentucky is in the Jefferson Co. court records dated 1807. He is believed to have arrived between 1801 and 1802. He lived there until his death. Henry is listed in the 1810 and 1820 census there. Henry applied for pension based on his Revolitionary War service while living 10 miles outside of Louisville, Kentucky in Jefferson Co, Kentucky. The application was dated Nov. 10, 1821. In it he stated that 3 daughters over 21 and 3 sons, the youngest 18 and the oldest 24, were living at home. The pension was granted Jan. 30, 1822. Henry's service record is recorded in the Revolutionary War records (S402).

Second Marriage: Elizabeth Ellis on Sept. 6, 1831 in Floyd Co., Indiana

Samuel was listed a head of household in Jefferson Co., Kentucky census in 1810. His first record of being in Indiana was a purchase of 80 acres of land in Harrison Co. Nov. 16, 1819 from Patrick Shields. Samuel is listed in the 1820 census of Harrison Co. Samuel sold 11 acres of said land to Casper Jordan on May 8, 1832. He sold the remaining 69 acres to William Russel on March 12, 1833. In 1819 the property was in Franklin Township of Harrison Co. In 1830 the county line was moved and the property was in Georgetown Township of Floyd Co. By 1840 he had moved to Harrison Co. probably to be near his son Philip.

On Feb. 16, 1843 he placed his son Henry, minor aged 14 years, 4 months, into apprenticeship to Thomas Ellis to learn the art, trade and mystery of a cooper.

Mary Jane's father was John W. Riley born Aug. 3, 1821 and died July 2, 1901 or 1902-both dates are recorded. He may be buried at Hopewell but there was no record of burial there and no stone. John came from North Carolina as stated in the 1850 census. His mother, Sara, was listed in his household. She was also born in North Carolina. Her age in 1850 was 72.

Mary Jane's mother was Margaret Carpenter born Aug. 26, 1826 and died Nov. 27, 1865-age 39 years, 3 months and 1 day as stated on her stone at Hopewell. Margaret's parents were John Carpenter born about 1790 in North Carolina, he was 60 in the 1850 census. Her mother's name was Polly? born about 1802, she was 48 years of age in the 1850 census and is listed as being from East Tennessee.

Mary Jane's parents, John and Margaret Riley, were married Aug. 24 or 29, 1844-books give different dates. They were married in Floyd Co., Indiana by Craven Lynn, the first minister and teacher in Georgetown Township.

Children: There is a record of 12 children, however, family history says there were unnamed twins, a boy and girl-they probably died at birth or shortly after - this would have made 14

Children: 1 Benjamin Philip born Jan. 20, 1901
2 Addie Elnora born Oct. 6, 1903, died Nov. 2, 1981
3 Loriettia Nellie born June 17, 1905, died May 10, 1988
4 Alberta Geniva born Oct. 13, 1912
5 Emidd Melvin born Dec. 24, 1915, died Aug. 2, 1993
6 Virgil Richard born May 22, 1921, died Aug. 1943

At one time Emma's parents and Ben's grandparents owned adjoining farms. Ben inherited the farm at the death of his grandfather. Ben was to provide a home for his grandmother until her death, she died in 1899. He had 40 acres and a log house, outbuildings, farm equipment, farm animals, and complete household furnishings. During their marriage he built Emma a 6 room house on the hill above the original log home. He also built new outbuildings. They bought an additional 20 acres of land. Their farm was located on Heinze road about a quarter of a mile from Hwy. 11 in Floyd Co., Indiana.

Emma's mother and father came to live in the log house when the new house was complete. Emma and Ben moved into their new home with their 4 oldest children.

Ben added another room to their home after the death of Emma's father. Her mother, being elderly, was no longer able to live alone. The house then had 7 rooms, 2 side porches, 1 screened-in back porch and a cellar that could be reached from the back porch. Across a short walk, about 5 or 6 steps, was a summer kitchen. This was a small 1 room house where Emma did all of her cooking, canning, ironing, etc. in order to keep the main house cooler in the summer. The summer kitchen was furnished with everything she needed - wash stand, water table, eating table, pie safe, cooking range and such. She did her washing on the screened porch in winter and summer. There was a cistern under the porch and the pump was located there. She never had electricity or running water while she lived on the farm.

Emma lived on the farm until the summer of 1947. Her son Virgil was killed when his ship went down in World War II. He was her last child living at home. With Virgil gone, Emma could no longer manage the farm. Both of her other sons helped but they had homes of their own to keep up. The farm was sold in Apr. 1947. Emma moved to 1314 E. Market St. in New Albany, Indiana. She had never lived in a town before and she did not like - as she called it -"being pinned in" among people and the noise.

In 1953, Emma had a small 4 room house with basement, front and back porch, built in Lanesville, Indiana. She had always considered Lanesville her home. That was where she had shopped and done all her business when she was growing up and during her life on her farm. She moved into her new house in the summer of 1953 and lived there until her death in 1967.

When Emma was 16 she went with her older sister Nell to take instructions in the Catholic religion. Nell had married a catholic man but did not want to go alone for the instructions. When the classes were over, Emma also joined the Catholic Church. But when she married Ben, she again went to a Protestant church because Ben did not believe in Catholicism. Her children attended a protestant church as well, however, Emma did have some of them baptised in the Catholic church. Philip and Addie attended school there 1 year. After Ben's death, she started attending services again of her chosen religion.

Anne Bell (Bell)

I could find nothing out about her children. I know there were some. If I can find anything out later I will send the information on.

This is all the information I was able to compile. There is only 1 sister to left in Mothers family and her memory isn't to sharp.

I contacted people in Franks, Lafe's, and Nells families. I called 1 of the Mayfields but received no information he didn't return the calls. I know nothing about Billys family. I don't remember ever meeting any of them.

I hope this information will be of some help.

Sincerely,

Pat Butler

Chas. C. Emery Dead.

Charles C. Emery of Ft. Scott, 67 years old, died at his home of a stroke of apoplexy Sunday night. He was a half-brother of Frank Emery of Deerfield township and had been a member of the Nevada Baptist church since childhood. Born in Iowa, he came to Nevada with his parents when a child and as a young man went to Redfield, Kas., near Ft. Scott, where he farmed until three years ago, when he moved to town.

In 1890 Mr. Emery married Miss Pollie Brock, a member of the well known Vernon county family of that name. The wife, with three daughters and two sons, survive, five other children being dead. The Ft. Scott Tribune says of him: "He was very favorably known in his community and was devoted to his home and family. He leaves many friends to mourn his death."

Died Dec. 11, 1941. Buried at Jewell Cemetery, Vernon Cty, SW Nevada, Mo.

Dear Ann and Bob,
Just a quick note-I received the priority package and THANK YOU! It is wonderful! You two have done a wonderful job. I will be sending you some information and some corrections as well as some other names and addresses for the Brocks I know. Also, I cannot tell you how happy I am that you are online! It makes things so much simpler.

Since my grandmother, Lydia "Mae" Giffin and her sister, Glenna "Rosa" Giffin married the Brock boys, Milford "Milt" and Harvey "Harve", and Mother is still living, we have quite a bit to add. It may take me a while to get it to the point of mailing, but do not give up on me.

Just a little about us-Jack and I are retired, Jack since downsizing in '91 and me in '98 both from Phillips Petroleum Company here in Bartlesville. Before I retired I started teach genealogy at the local technology center and have continued. I say I am blessed as Jack enjoys the hobby also. I teach Basic Genealogy and Family Tree Maker Computer Software program and Jack teaches Genealogy on the Internet. All are 8 week classes in the spring and fall. We TRY to reserve our summers for the grandchildren and great grandchildren, house, yard, and our own research. Two of our three children and their families live here also, so I should include babysitting in our duties.

Must close now, have some of that babysitting to do this evening. Just wanted you to know I received the packette. And if you are ever in this area of Oklahoma, please call and plan to visit.
Your cousin, barb

Dear Ann,

Sometime ago, Melba Keppen of Nevada, Missouri gave me you name to contact about the Brock family. She indicated that you were related through the Rebecca "Becky" Elizabeth Brock Burkett line and that you were traveled over the US in your recreational vehicle.

I am the granddaughter of Becky's brother, Milford Milligan "Milt" Brock and Lydia "Mae" Giffin Brock.

I have been doing genealogy for a number of years and am again working on my Brock information. Melba gave me some pictures and then there were some information in Grandmother Mae's effects. My Mother, Eileen Brock Walcher, was the youngest daughter of Milt and Mae and lives in Blackwell, Oklahoma, where Milt and Mae are last lived and buried. After Mother's heart problems last year (angioplasty in May and bypass in September) I knew it was time to get out the information to see what we had and did not have while I had her to help identify pictures, etc.

I began looking for the children of Wilma and Thomas Fitzpatrick of Ponca City, knowing that they visited with my grandparents. Wilma was the oldest child of Lula Brock and Alphonzo Williams. I sent a letter to Richard Fitzpatrick in Chickasha, OK, son of Wilma and Thomas after finding his name in Wilma's obituary. . Richard forward my letter to Roy Williams of Laurel, Montana and Roy called me yesterday. Then followed up with an email, it was so nice to hear from another cousin who is interested in the family history.

Roy mentioned he also corresponded with you and so I am finally following through with something I should have done sometime ago. Roy also mentioned that you had a reunion last summer and had made a book of the Brock and Burkett line and that you had given him a copy. Now I am just full of questions!

Where was the reunion and was it for just the Burkett family?
Is it possible to purchase a copy of your book?
Do you have information on other branches of the Lafayette and Sarah Frances Powell families?

Melba told me about the Robert Brock book, A Brock Family History, which takes the like back to Switzerland and I purchased a copy from Robert. However, I am interested in having information on each of Lafayette's children. I have quite a few pictures and will be happy to share with you copies and what information I have. In looking at the pictures in my Brock Photograph book, I find I have a few of the Burkett family that I thought you might like to have so I am enclosing laser copies of them. If there are wrong titles, please let me know. I have many other pictures that still need identification, and will have copies made later and send to Melba for her help. She has the Brock contacts in that area. Hopefully we can identify them by sharing them with each other -- if you would like copies will also share with you.

I look forward to hearing from you and comparing our information.

Most sincerely,

LIFE OF FRANK EMERY CLOSED LAST FRIDAY

ONE OF NATURE'S NOBLEMEN, HE ALWAYS DID RIGHT.

Had Been a Resident of Deerfield Township About 65 Years and Was Loved by All Who Knew Him.

A man who during the 40 years the present owner has edited The Herald had visited and encouraged us not less than a thousand times is no more—Frank Emery of Deerfield township is dead. The final scene was enacted and the curtain went down on his earthly career at the Nevada hospital shortly after 8 o'clock last Friday morning—and when the life of Frank Emery closed there passed to the other world one of a score of the best and truest men it has ever been our privilege to know and, from the heart, call "friend"—the sublimest and dearest word spoken in English, save alone the family appellations.

For years Mr. Emery had been in failing health, the giant frame no longer being able to resist the ravages of time, the inexorable laws of nature that begin beckoning to all who reach the age he attained. Attacked by diabetes and other diseases and practically blind for a long time, he nevertheless fought it out to near the bitter end, the dauntless spirit refusing to surrender to any physical misfortune. There are a thousand glorious things that might be said of Frank Emery, not the least of them that he was game to the last moment of earthly consciousness and that he looked death in the face without flinching.

If we understand anything at all about men, Frank Emery was all that a real man, a true Christian gentleman and American citizen ought to be. He never did a dishonorable act in his life, his ideals were lofty and every moment of all his mature life he fought out the right and did it, regardless of who was helped or hurt. He asked no more than to be sure he was right—then he hewed to the line, letting the chips fall where they might, looking neither to the right nor the left as he forged his way straight ahead. Physically a giant, he was the same morally and—as to right and wrong—was no less mentally, though a man of scant schooling. In short, perhaps, no more truthful thing could be said of Frank Emery than that he was a diamond in the rough. We knew him like a book—knew his every thought as citizen, Christian and gentleman—and know that we make no error when we speak of him, know we are not mistaken, for, as we have said, we knew his every thought, told to us by Frank Emery himself.

The heritage he leaves to those he loved, though not in worldly goods, is priceless beyond words. It is something they cannot be robbed of—that will be theirs, come what may—the example of a true, noble, virtually perfect life. For, though the heart of Frank Emery has ceased to beat, though he lies cold beneath the sod, he is not dead. Generations yet unborn will feel his influence; though they may not know it, for the life of a man like him reaches to depths of the future immeasurable.

Son of Aaron and Mary J. Emery, Frank was born May 25, 1867, at Ottumwa, Ia., and was brought to Vernon county by his parents early in life. The father bought a large tract of land in the Sylvandale vicinity of Deerfield township, some six miles southwest of Nevada, which has been the Emery home for about 65 years and part of which was for many years the home of the son.

Before attaining man's estate, he met, wooed and won Miss Anna D. Brock, on Dec. 23, 1886, they were married and have walked life's pathway hand in hand during all the intervening 54 years, the bitter and the sweet all being the same to them. To them were born nine children, seven of whom, with their mother, survive. They are Mrs. Myrtle Baskett, Dalhart, Tex., Mrs. Millie Wolf, Jamesport, Mo., Mrs. Ethel Wolf, Ft. Scott, Kas., Harvey L., Milo, K. A. of near the home, Rev. David of Girard, Kas., and Lawrence of Badger township. There are 20 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Ella McBride of Ft. Collins, Colo., and Mrs. Anna D. Cox of Ordway, Colo.

Mr. Emery was a Baptist and had been since 1892, living up to the teachings of his church and the Bible as he understood them. His affiliation was with the Pine street church.

The funeral, under the auspices of the Ferry Funeral Home and conducted by Rev. Swinney, was held at the Pine Street Baptist church at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. There was a great outpouring of friends, the church being filled to capacity and scores being unable to gain admittance. The minister spoke with feeling of Mr. Emery and read a poem by Edgar Guest touching upon the value of an honored name. Music was by a quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fox, Miss Dollie Wolfe and Frank Agee, Miss Vernette Peak at the piano. The pallbearers, all grandsons, were Arthur and Delbert Wolf and Vincil, Frank, Fred and Calvin Emery. Ray Baskett of Amarillo, Tex., a grandson, and Clarence Kirk of Kansas City, a grandson-in-law, were honorary pallbearers. Flowergirls were granddaughters, Mrs. Viola Kline of Dumas, Tex., Mrs. Lucilen Kirk of Kansas City and granddaughters-in-law, Mrs. Vincil Emery and Mrs. Ray Baskett. Burial in Newton Burial Park.

All the children were here for the funeral, besides numerous other relatives, including the sister from Ft. Collins, Colo., a nephew, Bert King and Mrs. King of Gerster, Mo., and their son, Judson, of Kansas City. Two brothers and four sisters of Mrs. Emery were also present, they being D. T. Brock, Harvey Brock, Mrs. Beckey Burkett of LaHarpe, Kas., Mrs. Fond Williams of Iola and Mrs. Polly Emery of Ft. Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rathke of Carthage and other relatives, the families of brothers and sisters of Mrs. Emery, also attended.

Mr. Emery lived a consistent Christian life. His life and name stands as a living monument for right and righteousness. The poem, "Your Name," by Edgar A. Guest, which was used in the service, will express our attitude and responsibility concerning his name.

DEATH OF FRANK EMERY
CLOSED LAST FRIDAY

DEAN OF LATHEM'S BUSINESS MEN
ALWAYS DID RIGHT.

Had Been a Resident of Lathem
Township About 60 Years and Was Loved by All Who Knew Him.

A man who during the 60 years the present owner has edited The Herald and whose name has appeared in no less than a thousand issues is no ordinary man. Such a man was Frank Emery of Deerfield township, who died last Friday. The final scene was reached and the curtain went down on the quiet career of the Nevada resident shortly after 4 o'clock last Friday afternoon—and when the life of Frank Emery closed there passed on to the other world one of a score of the best and truest men in this area. It is a privilege to know and call "friend"—the noblest and truest word known in English—more than the family circumstances would permit. Frank Emery did not have many friends, the great term being reserved for those few choice souls of whom the world is not worthy; but he had hosts of acquaintances that knew him as a friend, and the deepest feeling of sympathy is extended to all those bereaved by his death. As a neighbor, a citizen, a friend, a husband, a father, Frank Emery was the embodiment of all that is noble and true in human character. He was a man who always did right—who was honest in the truest sense of the word—who was honest with himself, with his fellowmen and with his God. He was a man who was always ready to help the needy, who was always ready to lend a helping hand to the unfortunate, who was always ready to speak a word of cheer to the sorrowful, who was always ready to forgive and forget the wrongs done him by others, who was always ready to do unto others as he would have others do unto him. He was a man who was always ready to do his duty as he saw it, and who was always ready to do more than his duty. He was a man who was always ready to give credit to others for the good they did, and who was always ready to take the blame himself for the wrong he had done. He was a man who was always ready to help the weak and the unfortunate, and who was always ready to lend a helping hand to the deserving. He was a man who was always ready to do his duty to his fellowmen, to his country and to his God. He was a man who was always ready to do right and strive—was no less successful, though a man, of course, of modest means. He spent no money foolishly, but was always ready to help the needy and the deserving

Notes on the John (Henry) Brock Family
compiled by Geneva K. Emery and Bryan E. Bell

The following notes are compiled from the information gathered to present by Geneva K. Emery and Bryan E. Bell. These notes cover census and other records from the 1700's to the early 1900's. The first section contains facts about the Brock family based on those sources documented. The second section contains theories about the different Brock families and their relation to the John (Henry) Brock family. The third section is a list of pertinent questions which need to be answered on the Brock families.

SECTION I

A. Information compiled by Gerald Holden and found in A Brock Family History, by Robert Brock

1. Hanss Michel BRACH b.8 Apr 1687, Odenbach, Zweibrucken, Germany, d. Feb 1752, Brocks Gap, Shenandoah Co., VA (this is the person that Gerald Holden previously referred to erroneously as Rudal/Rudolph Brock).

Hanss Michel had five children, and 2 wives during his life. His first wife, Anna Maria, and he were md. ca 1707 in Odenbach, Germany. Their fourth child was Heinrich (Henry) BROCK, b. ca. 1725, America, d. 11 Mar 1800, Forestville, Shenandoah Co., VA (from Will Book E, p.356).

2. Heinrich (Henry) BROCK had 15 children by three wives. By his first wife Maria, he had 4 children, the oldest 2 of which were Henry Brock, b.1747, and Rudolph, b.1750, both in Forestville, Shenandoah Co., VA. (Rudolph is the great-great grandfather of Gerald Holden.) Heinrich and his second wife Magdalene had 2 children, the second of which was George, b. Aug 1762, Forestville, Shenandoah Co., VA. By his third wife Maria (Mary), Heinrich had 9 children, the third of which was son Michael, b.1773, Forestville, Shenandoah Co., VA.

3. Henry BROCK m. Christina - in 1782 in VA. Henry moved to Jefferson Co. KY around 1812, living about 10 miles from Louisville/New Albany. He died after Jan 1822.

4. George m. Catherine Zink in 1780, and later md. Julia Ann Bruner. He moved around 1812 to Washington Co., IN, just north of Harrison, Floyd, and Clark Co's, in Indiana. George d. Feb 1839.

5. Michael BROCK m. Mary Elizabeth Shaffer, 30 Sept 1795. Michael is listed in Revolutionary War records of Augusta Co., VA, because his father Henry had served in the Revolutionary War. Michael moved around 1812 to Floyd Co., IN, where he died in 1837.

6. Their half-brother Rudolph m. Magdalene in 1770. They moved by 1812-1815 to Liberty Twp., Highland Co., OH. (This is between Chillicothe and Cincinnati.)

B. Information from Census and Other Records

5. The 1810 VA Census Index shows brothers Rudolph and Michael BROCK. Rudolph is in Rockingham Co., p.5; Michael is in Nelson Co., p.680. Henry is in Princess Anne Co., p.442, and another of the sons, Jacob, is listed in Rockingham Co., p.5. This is the earliest census which lists Michael BROCK.

6. Nelson Co. VA is north of Lynchburg, VA, in the foothills of the Appalachians, directly south of Rockingham Co., and directly east of Augusta Co., VA.

7. The SILLINGS family was from Augusta Co., VA. The 1810 Augusta Co. census lists David SILLINGS and family. David and wife May (SNIDER) SILLINGS moved their family to Harrison Co., IN around 1812 (According to History of the Ohio Falls Cities and their Counties, 1882, vol.2, by L.A. Williams & Co., p.90, 212, 265-7). The first land entry for David SILLINGS in Indiana was in Floyd Co., from the U.S. Government 11 Feb 1817, in the northeast quarter of section 3, township 3, range 5. On 27 Dec 1817, he bought 160 acres in the southeast quarter of section 3, township 3, range 5; his residence was noted as Harrison Co., IN (Floyd Co., IN Grantee Deed Index 1802-1867). (The importance of this line will become clear in the following information.)

8. There is an 1810 Harrison Co., IN Census; however, there are no BROCK or SILLINGS families listed. (At that time, Harrison Co. encompassed land in present day Harrison, Floyd, Clark, Crawford, Orange, Washington, Jackson, and Scott Co's in Indiana -- see maps attached.)

9. In the 1820 VA Census Index, neither Rudolph nor Michael BROCK were listed. David SILLINGS is no longer in VA.

10. The 1820 OH Census Index lists Rudolph BROCK, but there is no listing for his brother Michael BROCK. David SILLINGS is not in OH.

11. There is no listing for Michael BROCK or David SILLINGS in the 1820 KY Census.

* There is a Michael BROOK in Harrison Co., IN, on p.499; however, he is under 50 years old. Therefore, BROOK is probably not an error, and this man is definitely NOT the Michael BROCK from the 1820-1830 IN Censuses.

18. Also there are a few land entries for BROCK families in the Floyd Co., IN, Grantee Deed Index Book I, 1802-1867:

Samuel BROCK bought land from Clement N. SHIELDS on 24 Aug 1824 in section 9, township 3, range 5.

Jacob BROCK bought land from Michael BROCK and wife on 28 Jan 1835 in section 35, township 10, range 5.

Alexander BROCK bought land from Abraham COFFIN and wife on 28 Dec 1844 in section 33, township 1, range 5; and in section 34, township 1, range 5.

Henry BROCK bought land from Phillip BROCK and wife on 4 Aug 1849 in the Byerly Partition Plat in Georgetown, Georgetown Twp.
(this is probably ? not our John Henry BROCK)

SECTION II

A. Conclusions based on the information above

From the census and deed information above and in the supplements which accompany this document, it is obvious that our John (Henry) BROCK is the son of one of the four BROCK men listed in the 1820 IN Census. Knowing that David SILLINGS, his father-in-law, also moved to Indiana at the same time, it would be logical that John's family lived close to the SILLINGS family. David SILLINGS brought with him the whiskey trade from Virginia, setting up a distillery on one of the rivers in Floyd Co., according to the History of the Ohio Falls Cities and their Counties, 1882, vol. 2, p.265-7. Therefore, it is not surprising to find John (Henry) BROCK listed in the censuses as a cooper and farmer.

The closest BROCK living to David SILLINGS is Samuel BROCK. This is substantiated by Robert Brock, author of A Brock Family History. According to his book, three sons of Hanss Michel BROCK moved to the KY/IN area around 1812: Henry, George, and Michael. It was Henry's oldest son Samuel BROCK who moved to Harrison Co., IN, buying land there in 1824. By reason of deduction, it is this Samuel who is the father of our John (Henry) BROCK. (most likely)

For further information, Robert Brock's address is as follows:

Robert Brock
1925 S.W. 170th St.
Seattle, WA 98166

The book is $24.00 + $4.00 shipping and handling. It is hardback, and from the photocopies I have seen, it is well worth the money. Well written, the book includes mention of our John (Henry) and Polly BROCK and their children, although it traces the family no further.

To address two points which I feel are important:

1. Our family has handed down through oral history the name John Henry BROCK, although in every record found to date, there is no reference to John's middle name. In addition, John's daughter Catherine, who married John H. BELL, has been known in our family as Mary Catherine. As with John, there are no records which refer to her as anything other than "Catherine."

2. We know that John (Henry) and Polly BROCK were buried in Hopewell Church Cemetery near Lanesville, IN (Harrison/Floyd Co's). In the summer of 1990, I journeyed to the cemetery and found no stones standing for these two. There are no cemetery records indicating that they are buried there, although on

From the census and deed information above and in the supplements which accompany this document, it is obvious that our John (Henry) BROCK is the son of one of the four BROCK men listed in the 1820 IN Census. Knowing that David SULLINGS, his father-in-law, also moved to Indiana at the same time, it would be logical that John's family lived close to the SULLINGS family. David SULLINGS brought with him the whiskey trade from Virginia, setting up a distillery on one of the rivers in Floyd Co., according to the History of the Ohio Falls Cities and their Counties, 1882, vol. 2, p.240-7. Therefore, it is not surprising to find John (Henry) BROCK listed in the censuses as a cooper and farmer.

B. The closest BROCK living to David SULLINGS is Samuel BROCK. This is substantiated by Robert Brock, author of A Brock Family History. According to his book, three sons of Moses Michael BROCK moved to the Ryan area around 1813: Henry, George, and Michael. It was Henry's oldest son Samuel BROCK who moved to Harrison Co., IN, buying land there in 1824. By reason of deduction, it is this Samuel who is the father of our John (Henry) BROCK.

Polly's death certificate, it shows that she was buried there. According to my cousin Mary Francis (HANCOCK) CHRISTIAN, our John (Henry) BROCK died in 1884. She remembers her mother visiting the graves back in the 1940-50's, remarking that John (Henry) was 70 years old when he died. It is my thought that perhaps the stones have eroded, been broken or covered by undergrowth in the ensuing years. At any rate, there appears to be no record of John (Henry) BROCK's death -- no certificate, no will, etc. Perhaps the local newspapers might have mention of his death. And, possibly they might mention his parentage, since he had been an Indiana native. Both Harrison and Floyd Co. IN newspapers would have to be researched.

August, 1764 (B).

Stringer adversus Morrow.—First day of July, 1749. Bond by Daniel (his "O") Stringer, of Followfield Township, County of Chester, and Province of Pennsylvania, yeoman. Am held, &c., to James Ortan, of same place, &c. Condition: To pay £10 in 1751. Test, Wm. Morrow, Walter Hood. Bill for injunction, as follows: To the Worshipful Court of Augusta, Sitting in Chancery: Orator Daniel Stringer, late of Chester County, Pennsylvania: That some time in 1748, or 1749, he purchased a plantation near Buckley's Mill, in said County, of one James Orton, for £100, and executed eight bonds. Orton had bought from William Morrow, but being unable to make the payments, he sold to orator, and Morrow took assignment of the eight bonds. Orator, intending to come to Virginia, sold to Robert Turner for £150, and then set off on his journey to Virginia. Morrow went to orator's wife, persuaded her Turner was insolvent and to give up the bonds to Morrow, which she did, and on his representation that it was necessary, she went to Philadelphia with Morrow—55 miles—where he desired her to tarry at a barber shop till he returned from waiting on the Secretary. After some time he returned and told her she might go home for he had attended to the business without her. Morrow told her that the Secretary gave Morrow a warrant to John Taylor, Surveyor of the County, and she might get home as she could, and left her to walk home on foot. The day after she got home, Morrow came and told her one thing more was necessary to give him possession of the land, by putting out her fire and kindling one in his name, which she also performed, and asked him to give up her husband's bonds, which he agreed to do if she met him at John Taylor's mill that evening. She met him there and found him so drunk that he did nothing but abuse her and her two brothers-in-law who went along with her. Orator shows that on his way home from Virginia a certain Hans Hamilton, then Sheriff of York County, came to the house where he lodged, about two miles on this side of Yorktown, and learning orator's name, asked him if he was not indebted to Morrow, and arrested him at the suit of Morrow, assignee of orator, &c., &c., and carried orator forty miles back to Hamilton's house, where he was forced to remain a prisoner two weeks (as he could procure no one to be his bail in a place where he was a stranger), and then to deliver his two horses (value £40) to the Sheriff as a pledge for his appearance. When he got home he was informed by his wife of her agreement with Morrow, whom orator upbraided. Morrow went with orator to Yorktown, where Hamilton arrested orator at suit of another person, and on his agreeing to go to Hamilton's house to make up with that other person who lived near, Morrow said he must return home, but would come to Hamilton in a few days and settle all matters, and he would carry home orator's mare, which he then rid (worth £11) out of friendship; on which Morrow took the mare, saddle and bridle, together with a wallet in which was a new shirt and 3/ in money. Orator waited eleven days for Morrow's return, and was then compelled to swap a stallion, one of the horses formerly left in the Sheriff's hands, to a mare of the Sheriff's to carry him home; but was obliged to leave nine pounds (the boot which he was to receive in the swap of the said horses), together with the other horse, in the Sheriff's hands. Since which time orator has never seen or met Morrow. Morrow has sued orator in Augusta. Orator never received any of his articles. Sworn to 16th May, 1761, before Daniel Smith.

March, 1764 (B).

DISTRICT COURT EXECUTIONS.

September, 1794 (A to I).

Gregg vs. Hinkle.—Sir:—I understand that you are much dissatisfied about the land that I surveyed for Abraham Teter, on the north side of Seneca, joining his own land, saying I promised to send you word before I surveyed it. I remember of promising not to survey it before Andrew Johnson would return from Rockingham, who was to bring your entry, and Andrew returned and brought no entry; and, moreover, old George Teter searched Lewis's records and found no such entry as you spoke of, and the widow Teter demanded the surveying of the same, and as Abraham had the oldest entry by warrant, I thought myself in duty bound to survey it, neither saw I any occasion to send for you, when I knew you had no entry for the land, and yet had time to procure it, and, furthermore, it is uncertain whether old entrys are prolonged on the Eastern waters or not, for Mr. Lewis wrote to me that he knew that they were prolonged on the Western waters, but not on our waters. But if your right is good, my surveying of it will not hinder you from obtaining it, for I don't mean to make the plot till you are satisfied about it. I am ready, at your demand, to survey 100 acres for you on Seneca, above Abraham Teter's land, for your entry is now made by warrant, for I lately obtained a warrant for you from Colonel Hamilton. I desire that you be moderate in your censures, and, whether or not, I am your hearty well-wisher and obsequious, M. Henkle. To Mr. Wm. Gragg. (Addressed) Mr. William Gragg, Sr., On Seneca.

The Commonwealth of Virginia.—To George Moffett, Gent. Greeting: Know you that from the special trust and confidence which is reposed in your fidelity, courage, activity and good conduct, our Governor, with the advice of the Council of State, and on the recommendation of the worshipful Court of the County of Augusta, doth appoint you, the said George Moffett, County Lieutenant of ye Militia of the said County of Augusta, to take rank as such from the nineteenth day of November, 1783. In testimony whereof, these our letters are made patent. Witness: His Excellency, Benjamin Harrison, Esq., our said Governor, at Richmond, this sixth day of April, 1784. (Signed) Benj. Harrison. The Camp and Summers Families of West Virginia

Updated September 5, 2000

This homepage was created for the purpose of connecting with others, related or just interested, who are also searching for my family of CAMPs and SUMMERS. This is the paternal side of my family tree.

The CAMP family are all from Virginia and West Virginia. But I have reached a point where they all seem to disappear and may have come from Ohio or some other state nearby, so all leads are being followed. My CAMP line so far goes back to George Henry Camp, Sr., born about 1800. His son, George Henry, Jr. was born about 1827 (in possibly Clay County or Kanawha County) Virginia. His son by his first wife, Christine or Christina Paxton, is my great grandfather, James Monroe Camp. Other children of their marriage are Martha A. Camp, John Franklin Camp, George Henry Camp (III), and Columbus Camp. George Jr.'s second wife was Adeline or Adaline Virginia Hill, and they had six more children: Esquire or Squire Steven Camp, Lucy M. Camp, William K. Camp, Florilla Camp, Bell Camp, and Rhody Camp

My SUMMERS family tree is through my paternal grandmother, Etta Mabel Summers (Camp). Going backwards from her, it is as follows: Etta Mabel Summers -- Andrew Jackson Summers --Jacob Jehu Summers -- John Paul Summers -- Johann Georg Sommer....and on back to Germany.

The Keown and Frame family trees attached are from my mother's side of the family and are added here for general interest and others seeking those names as well.

So far I have compiled over 7000 names from all branches of my family tree and would be happy to

Defense Department Cancels News Curb

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department announced today it has canceled a 12-point "security guidance" which forbade military and civilian personnel to talk to newsmen.

However, a controversial memorandum requiring defense personnel to report conversations with newsmen remains in effect.

A Pentagon spokesman said a message was sent out Thursday to all defense agencies removing the security guidance which was issued on Oct. 24 at the height of the Cuban crisis.

This action did not mean there will now be a free flow of information.

Even in normal times there is a clamp on certain types of information considered to be sensitive—information that the Joint Chiefs of Staff feel would tip off potential enemies to things they shouldn't know about.

Minor Damage

Damage was minor in a fender-bender at 11:35 a.m. today at the northwest corner of the square, according to Carthage police.

Kathryn "Kay" Weichel

Peacefully passed away on January 27, 2005 at the age of 71. She is survived by the love of her life and devoted husband of 53 years, Paul Weichel of Santa Rosa; daughter Dawna of Santa Rosa; son Craig and wife Patty; granddaughter Zachary and Shawn of Sebastopol; sister-in-law Jean Brock of Fresno; a beloved niece and many beloved nephews. Kay was preceded in death by her brothers Clifford and Harold and sister-in-law Patricia. Born in 1934 in Iola, Kansas to parents Thelma and Roy Brock, Kay grew up and lived the majority of her life in Marin County until moving to Santa Rosa in 1960. Kay and her husband Paul took great pleasure in spending time with family and countless dear friends. As members of the Adobe Squares Dance Club, Kay and Paul participated in dances throughout the United States traveling in their RV with their beloved dog, Mr. Jiggs. In addition to her many talents, Kay was an avid quilter, an exceptional organist and singer and enjoyed writing. Kay loved to laugh and have spirited conversations about politics and current events. In recent years she was especially passionate about her volunteer work at Kaiser Permanente in Santa Rosa. A gathering to celebrate the life of Kay will be held at a future date. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Sutter VNA & Hospice, Santa Rosa.

ROY AND FRANK GIFFIN VISIT SISTERS AFTER TWENTY-SEVEN YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Giffin and daughter, Mrs. Edward Knowles and Frank Giffin returned home last Saturday from a 1,500 motor trip that took them through Missouri, Kansas, and Oklahoma. On the trip the Giffin brothers visited two sisters that they had not seen for twenty-seven years. The sisters are Mrs. Harve Brock at La Harpe, Kan., and Mrs. Mae Brock at Blackwell, Okla.

Their first stop was at La Harpe and accompanied by Mrs. Brock they went to Dunlap, Kan., where they visited the cemetery where their parents were buried. From there they went to Blackwell, and the gathering of the brothers and sisters after a lapse of twenty-seven years was a joyous one. Samuel Cook, 87 years old uncle of the Giffins and Brocks was a guest at a dinner given for them.

While in Backwell, Mrs. Knowles visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Walcher. Mrs Walcher is a cousin of Mrs. Knowles.

They also visited at Medford, Okla., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Northcutt. Mr. Northcutt is sheriff of that county and his wife is a cousin of the Giffins.

HISTORY OF DEABORN AND OHIO COUNTIES, INDIANA - 1885

WILLIAM L. H. GIVAN, farmer, Manchester Township, was born in Maryland April 22, 1820, a son of Joshua and Henrietta (DAVIS) GIVEN, whose sketch has been given on these pages. William L. H. grew to manhood under the austere influences of a pioneer life, a true helper of his father in his arduous labors, obtaining but a limited education in the rude schoolhouse of that day. He was united in marriage October 19, 1843, with Jane M. FERRIS, daughter of Sylvester and Rhoda (KING) FERRIS, natives of New York, who settled in this county in 1838. By this union they had seven children, six now survive: Cornelia, Laura, Heman, George, Rhoda and Connelly. Mr. GIVAN has continued a resident upon land of his father's first purchase, where he has erected good buildings and improvements, constituting a pleasant home. He, like his father before him, is an active member and supporter of the Baptist Church, having been a member since 1842. He lost his wife by death July 20, 1862. She was a devoted Christian, and an earnest worker in the church, having united with it prior to her marriage.

OBITUARY
Mrs. SARAH ANN RICE, wife of RUFUS RICE, near Holman, P.O., died December 2, 1891, at the age of 65 years. Mrs. Rice was the youngest daughter of REV. SILVESTER FERRIS, a Baptist minister, who died several years ago. Mr. Rice was a member of the Methodist Church, but his wife remained a Baptist. Some 50 years ago, she united with the Baptist Church at Sparta. When the Hogan Hill Baptist Church was organized, she removed membership to the latter place where she remained an active, constant member to the time of her death. While Sister Rice was a devoted Baptist, the many Methodist ministers that partook of the hospitality of her home will bear testimony of her Christian character, benevolence and personal worth. Her neighbors feel her loss deeply. One son, CHARLES E. RICE-the only child-with his family resides on the home farm.

For about 18 years past, Mrs. Rice has been suffering with asthma, and she has bravely contented with that distressing malady. During the last few months her symptoms began to alarm her friends, and she was conscious that her days were few. While her strength remained, she put every room in her house in order, and when the summons came she resignedly obeyed the call. One week before her death, she took her to her bed, and while all that friends could suggest and willing hands could do was done, she gradually faded and grew weaker. Like a worn and weary pilgrim o life's journey, feeble and faint, she longed for rest; and the angel came quietly to her bedside, kissed down the heavy eye-lids, and whispered: "It is enough come up higher, and at the close of Wednesday evening she feel asleep in Jesus, and her happy spirit took flight, to begin the new day in Heaven. It has been so beautifully said:
"Tis sweet in childhood
To give back the spirit to its maker,
More the hear has grown familiar
With the P??? of sin."

But oh, how sweet to the dying Christian, who for half a century has been faithful in all her Christian duties, and where all will say of a truth: "she has done what she could" to hear that welcome plaudit: "Well done, God and faithful servant" born to her by a retinue of angels, come to aid her spirit in p???? its wings, to make that swift glad flight from the earth to God. The funeral was held at Hogan Hill, December 11, conducted by Rev. R.W. Johnson, _____-illegible remaining line(s).

Phyllis Fleming, webmaster of this site researched the following information:
Hon. Edwin P. Ferris, Shelbyville

In placing before our readers biographies of a few of the leading citizens of Shelby Co., we have believed it our duty to write nothing but plain facts, giving the simple events in the lives of each, without praise or coloring in their behalf. The characteristics in the make-up of men differ widely, and if in any case we should err in our judgment, we trust our critics will credit us with doing so unknowingly. The subject of this sketch is a man, beneath whose cool exterior burns the latent fire of an honest ambition---that which is necessary to success in every calling or profession.

Edwin P. Ferris was born in Little Falls, Herkimer Co., N.Y., July 13, 1829, and is the son on Sylvester and Rhoda (King) Ferris, natives of New York State. Sylvester Ferris was a minister of the Baptist Church, and, in 1835, he, together with his family, moved to Chilicothe, Ohio, and the following year removed to Dearborn Co., Ind., where they remained until 1846, when they moved to Ripley Co., Ind., where he and wife resided until death. Edwin P. was the youngest in a family of eight children, and the only son. His boyhood days were passed in Dearborn and Ripley Cos., attending the common schools as much as was possible for a farmer's boy who worked on a farm, until his 21st year. Shortly after reaching manhood, he began attending the County Seminary at Versailles, the county seat of Ripley Co.; but at the end of two weeks, the teacher of the public school fell sick, and the trustees put Mr. Ferris in charge of that institution in which capacity he taught one year, afterward teaching a year in Dearborn Co. He then entered Franklin College, where he remained as a student until 1854, when, on account of the sickness of his mother, he was compelled to return home, thereby forfeiting his early cherished hopes of one day being a college professor. In 1854, he was elected Surveyor of Ripley Co., serving two years with honesty and capability. He was married in Versailles Dec. 31, 1854, to Sibyl F. Stevens, daughter of Jefferson and Harriet Stevens. Mrs. Ferris was born in Ohio, and has had eight children, six of whom are living. During his term as Surveyor, he turned his attention to the law profession, and the following two years, while farming, kept diligently at his studies every moment he could spare from his farm duties. In 1858, he began practice in partnership with Judge A.C. Downey, of Rising Sun, locating his office at Versailles, which continued three years. In the fall of 1862, he was elected, from Ripley Co., to a seat in the State Legislature, which posiiton he held two years. He still devoted his time to his profession, and in the election of 1876, was the Tilden and Hendricks Elector from the district. In April 1878, he removed to Shelbyville and formed a partnership with Alonzo Blair, which continued until the death of the latter, July 19, 1879. In the fall of that year, he took in partnership Albert Wray, and still occupies the same office as formerly with Mr. Blair. He and wife are members of the Presbyterian Church and politically he is a "dyed-in-the-wool" Democrat, firm and unyielding in his attachments to his party, spending his time freely in its service, and on the stump or rostrums is considered a formidable antagonist. As a lawyer, he is a hard student and faithful to his client; is a fluent, fair agrumentative speaker, never digressing from his case for the sake of oratorical display. He always discourages a multiplicity of suits, advising many clients to a private settlement of their cases instead of resorting to the law, thereby often losing a prospective fee. He is one of the most charitable lawyers to opposing witnesses, covering with the mantle of charity, contradictions in their testimony which makes a friend of one who might otherwise be an enemy. His long professional experience and practice before the Supreme Court have made him familiar with the decisions of that tribunal of justice, which generally helps him in every-day practice to lay his hand upon the decision he desires to use, wi hout often referring to digest, text-book or index. He never gets excited in the trial of a case, always keeping cool and collected; and, by the fairness with which he presents the evidence on both sides, has immense weight with a jury. Mr. Ferris in his social life is charitable and kind, giving freely of his means to aid every worthy object; is plain, blunt and unostentatious in his manners, and since his coming to Shelbyville, has made many friends, who speak of him in the warmest praise.

However, the Brant & Fuller History, page 573, lists Judge Ferris as Edwin P.

Hon. Edwin P. Ferris was born July 13, 1829, at the town of Little Falls, Herkimer County, N.Y., and is the youngest son of a family of eight children. His parents' names were Sylvester and Rhoda (King) Ferris, natives of the Empire State. The father was a Baptist minister. The family moved to Chillicothe, Ohio, in 1835, and during the following year they came to Hogan Hill, Dearborn County, Indiana, and resided there until 1846, when they removed to Ripley County, and located about seven miles from the county seat. Here he assisted his father in clearing a small farm, and during the winter attended the common schools. About the time he became of age he went to the county seat to attend the county seminaries, but in a short time was promoted to be one of the teachers. He afterward attended a Commercial College and received a diploma therefrom. He also began attending Franklin College, where he remained until 1854. During the same year he was elected County Surveyor of Ripley County, serving two years. December 31, 1854, Mr. Ferris was married to Miss Sibyl F. Stephens, who was born in Ohio. They have had eight children, six of whom are now living, two boys and four girls. After Mr. Ferris' term as Surveyor had expired and while working on the farm, he spent all of his spare time studying law. He began the practice thereof in 1858, with Hon. A.C. Downey. He soon secured a good practice. In 1862, he was elected representative in the State Legislature, and had the pleasure of voting for Hon. David Turpie, for United States Senator, vice Hon. Jesse D. Bright, expelled, and also voted for Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, for a position in the same August body. In the canvass of 1876, Ferris was one of the Democratic electors, and again voted for Governor Hendricks for Vice President. In April, 1878, Mr. Ferris removed from Versailles to Shelbyville, where he has since resided. The subject of this sketch and his family are members of the Presbyterian Church, and the former has been for many years a faithful and earnest Sabbath School worker, meeting two classes each day, one in the morning at the Christian Church and one in the evening at his own. Mr. Ferris is a prominent and influential Christian gentleman.

OF
Ella M. Wodke,
Died Oct. 25, 1905.
Age 24 yrs. 6 mos. 6 days.
Gone but not forgotten.
A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled:
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon His love had given,
And though the body slumbers here
The soul is safe in Heaven.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF
Frederick Wodke,
Born Nov. 20, 1842.
Died Feb. 25, 1912.
Age 69 yrs. 3 mos. 5 days.
Gone but not forgotten
Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in thy grave so low;
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our sorrows know.
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
And in Heaven with joy to greet thee
Where no farewell tears are shed.

Tietze—Wodke

On Wednesday evening, September 1st, Miss Ruth Stella Wodke was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph Martin Tietze, of Oakland, Missouri, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Robert O. Scott, at Haucke station, near Council Grove, Kansas.

The pretty Scott cottage is on an elevation overlooking the broad valley of the Neosho river, winding in graceful curves to the southward, finally disappearing in the hazy distance. It was a picturesque and beautiful scene when the last rays of the setting sun lighted up the hillside before disappearing into twillght's gray. Then the Japanese lanterns were lighted and soon the house and lawn were overflowing with merry guests.

At 8 o'clock the bridal pair entered the elegantly decorated parlor to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Ruth Brock. The groom's brother, Lewis B. Tietze, was best man and the bride's niece, Miss Rose Scott, acted as bridesmaid. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. Woodside, of the First Christian church, of Council Grove. After congratulations, brick ice cream, cake and lemonade was served.

A large table held the presents on display, which included silverware, cut glass and other articles in great variety and beauty.

Late in the evening a number of friends of the bride, both ladies and gentlemen, gave the newly weds a charivari, or "belling," after which a second round of refreshments were served, consisting of cake, ice cream, candy and cigars.

Mr. and Mrs. Tietze arrived at Oakland Tuesday. He has been associated with his brother, Lewis B. Tietze, in the management of Everherd Stock Farm and will continue in that capacity for the present.

Obituary.

Ella Margaret, next to the youngest daughter of Mr. Fred Wodka, was born near Dunlap, Kansas, April 19, 1881. Here she grew to womanhood and spent most of her life. She made many friends and possessed the highest esteem of all. In the latter part of the present summer, her health failed and at last she was taken to University hospital in Kansas City, Mo., to see if there might be some hope for her recovery. But death claimed her October 25, 1905. Interment was made in the Dunlap cemetery.

Ella joined the Methodist Episcopal church in 1900 and remained a member till death, A choice spirit is gone and she will be missed by the family and a host of friends. The bereaved family has the sympathy of all in this sad hour.

- Death: 29 OCT 1916 in Vernon Co., Missouri
- Note:

Lafayette Brock was born in New Albany, Indiana just across the Ohio River from Louisville, Kentucky.
'Lafe' joined the Third Cavalry Regiment of the Indiana Mounted Volunteers, a Division of the Union Army, on the 4th of July, 1861 in Corydon, Indiana, when he was 19 years old. (Corydon is on the Ohio River, downstream a few miles from Louisville.)
By July 22nd his Company had moved to Madison, Indiana (upriver, midway between Cincinnati and Louisville), The South side of the Ohio River was Confederate Territory.
In 1862 Lafe was at Antietem when on September 18th, a confederate shell exploded nearby as he was crossing the Antietem bridge. The blast knocked him from his horse, and he was left for dead in a ditch, surrounded by numerous other wounded and dead soldiers. His Colonel was killed in the explosion. It wasn't until troops returned to recover the dead that he was discovered alive. The explosion left him deaf in his right ear and mostly deaf in the left ear for the remainder of his life.
In a General Affidavit "in the matter of Lafayette Brock who during the war of the Rebellion was a Member of Co. B, 3rd Indiana Cavalry"--Lafayette's application for an Invalid Pension---- Granville Hise states that :
"I was first a member of Co. B, 3rd Ind Cavl. I was then transerred to Co. C, 5th the same Regiment. I was personally acquainted with the said Lafayette Brock. I saw him when he was struck by a bursting shell in the battle of Antietem, or Sharpsburg in 1862 or Sept. 17th. It was on a wooden bridge spanning Antietam Creek. The enemy had seven pieces of artillery trained on us and the shells were flying thick and fast when one exploded on the Bridge, killing horses and men, a Colonel was killed and I do not know how man more were killed or wounded. A piece of shell or the force of explosion threw said Lafayette Brock from his saddle a few feet in the air and then he fell on the bridge floor. I was about 100 feet from him in his rear. The bridge was cleared of horses and men, then we galloped across and took our position.
I did not see him after that in the Army. As I remember it was a week after that I was taken with Typhoid fever, sent to hospital, was finally discharged. The next time I saw him was in 1864 or 1865 at Croydon,

Harrison County, he was then hard of hearing as said.....hearing was since the explosion of the shell.....several times after 1865 and saw him frequently. I have met him two of three times in the last few years, he was here on a visit several different times. I noticed he has increasing deafness. He was a good and faithful soldier.
He was not hard of hearing before he got hurt with the exploding shell. And further declare that I have no interest in said claim and am not concerned in its prosecution.----- Granville Hise
The Battle of Antietem was the bloodiest single day encounter in the entire Civil War. Confederate Troops were determined to hold the road. After the battle it was stated a man could walk from one end of the road to the other, as far as he could see and step on the bodies of Confederate Soldiers the entire route. The road is still known as 'Bloody Lane."
After the battle Lafayette was assigned duty as a Muleteer in the Quartermaster Department, and in May of 1863 he was a "Regimental Teamster. Lafe was discharged August 31, 1864 in Indianapolis.

Lafayette applied for a disability pension in January 1904, stating he was mostly deaf, "suffered from debility, was much emaciated and bilious and have stomach troubles, and after exercise I am subject to vertigo." In June he added "heart trouble and nervousness" to the list. His pension was granted for thirty-dollars a month.

The Nevada Herald ran this story: " About 1908 H.M. Raschke began courting Emma K. Brock, the youngest daughter. Sometime during the courtship period and prior to the marriage (which lasted 51 years), they introduced their fathers to each other. Lafayette Brock and William Raschke, both then longtime residents of Nevada had never met. Yet they had served in the Union Army in many of the same major Civil War battles, although in different units. They both remembered the blood and thunder, of Gettysburg and Antietam, Bull Run and Chancellorsville. Their meeting touched off a continuing series (old comarade) stories which did not end until Lafayette's death in 1916."
